Introducing
JAMEY PERRY
for JCPenney

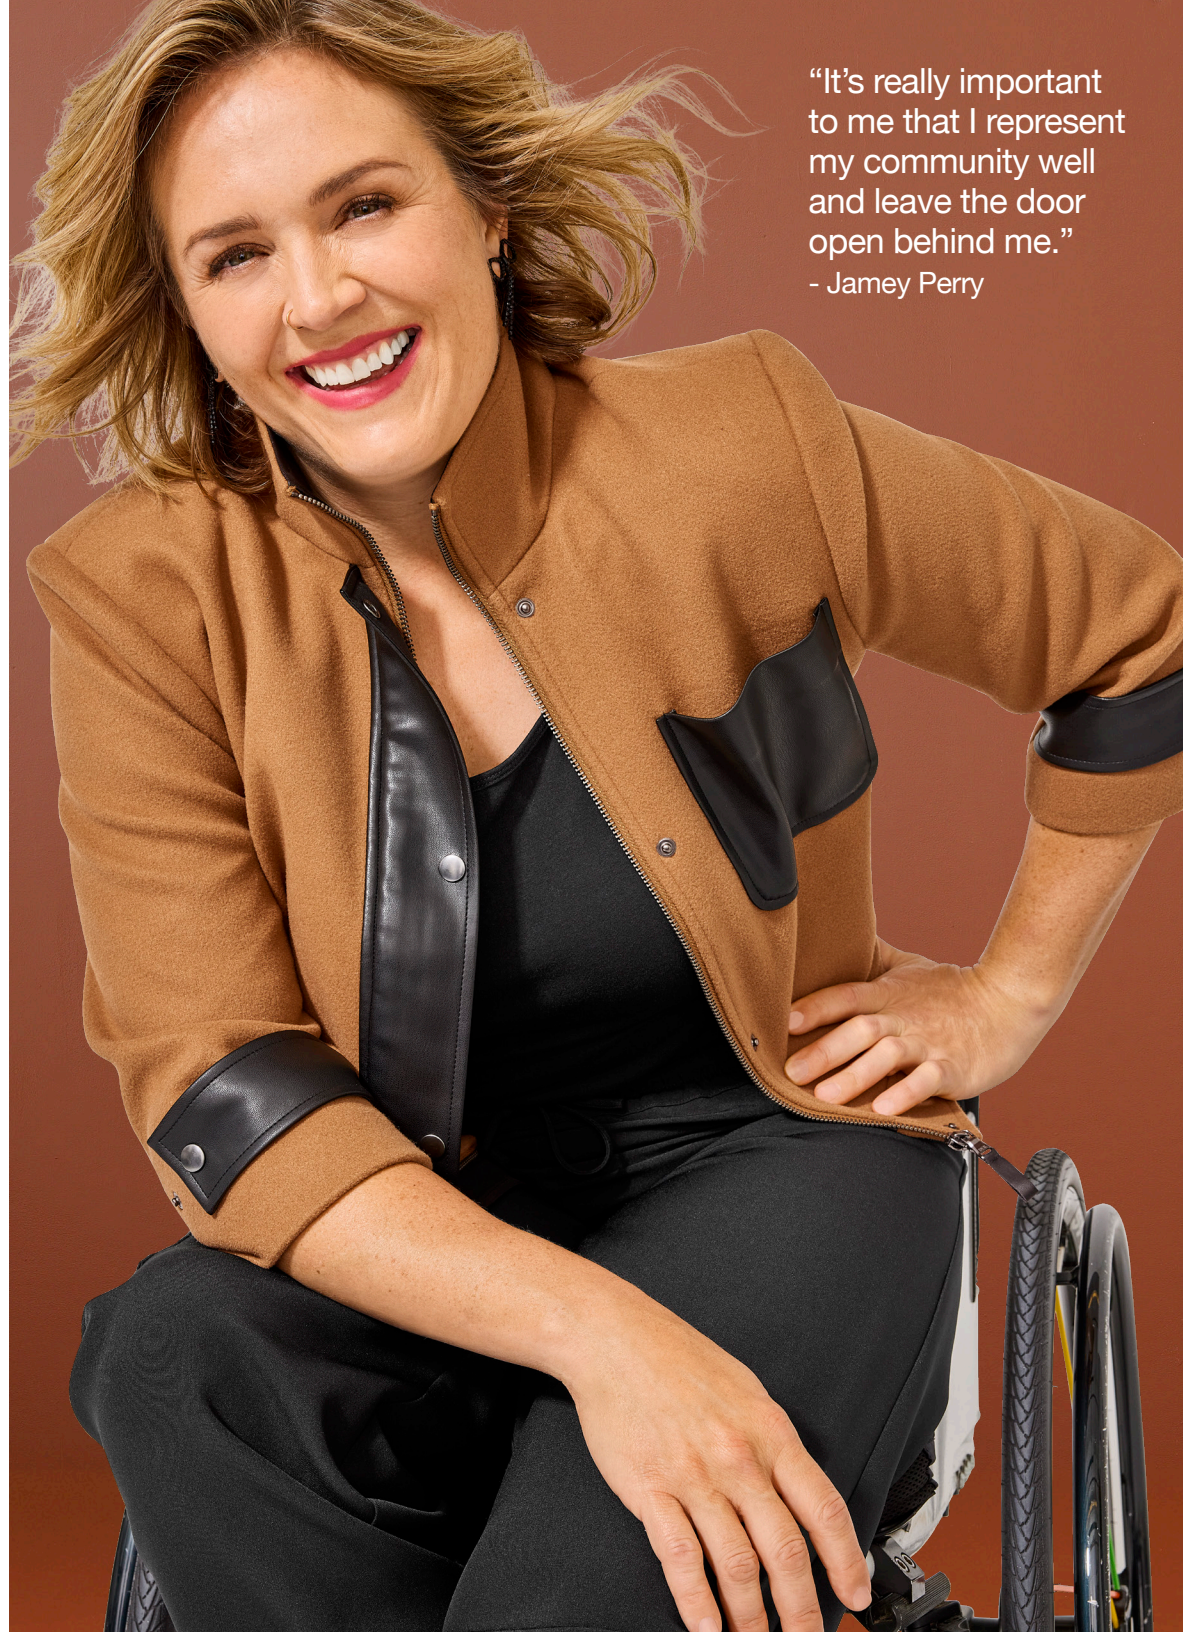

Our collab with trailblazing paraplegic athlete, writer, and mom, Jamey Perry launches during New York Fashion Week at Runway of Dreams.

This exclusive collection features on-trend pieces created specifically for wheelchair users, with design tweaks like shorter sleeves, no back pockets, easy pull-on loops, magnetic closures — and a trenchcoat with a revolutionary high-low back design.

With the launch, JCPenney is gifting $10,000 to support Jamey and her National Champion LA Clippers Chairmen basketball teammates!
